MANSFIELD PUBLIC LIBRARY

the 1965 hornet

We invite you to share our years at M.H.S. Here we have learned, we have matured, we have grown in strength of body and of mind. Mansfield High School has given us the abilities and the knowledge to seek places in the world, but more than this, it has given us friendships to be treasured all our lives.

. . . Now, with the passing of the years, we shall always be able to relive these most treasured moments in the 1965 HORNET.

Dedication

We the senior class proudly dedicate the 1965 HORNET to Mr. Edward Albertini for his endless efforts and assistance throughout our high school years.

Yearbook Advisor

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to Mr. Brandenburg for his contributions to the 1965 HORNET.

SUPERINTENDENT

Dear Graduates:

I extend to you my heartiest congratulations upon your graduation from Mansfield High School.

It is my hope that you have profited by being the first class to graduate with the advantages of four years of an improved and expanded curriculum.

Go forth and give life the best you have, and life will return to you what you deserve.

Give the best in everything you do and the rewards of health, happiness and success will come to you.

Sincerely yours,

Albert J. Murphy

MANSFIELD 20—HOLBROOK 0

The green and white rolled to an impressive 20-0 victory over a strong but inexperienced Holbrook squad. Mansfield was led by Captain Tom Cruser with 14 points and some great passing by Fred Vallett. Ken Fallon and Bob Bogdanchik were superb on defense.

MANSFIELD 13—FRANKLIN 16

The Hornets played a strong game but lost out in the closing minutes when a touchdown pass from Fred Vallett to Kevin Fallon was called back. Fred Vallett, with his tremendous passing, and Bill Henry and Dale McConnell with great offensive blocking, were standouts.

MANSFIELD 0—OLIVER AMES 22

A powerful Oliver Ames team, later to become Class D champs, outclassed the Hornet eleven. The absence of Jim Albertini, Mansfield's fine fullback, hurt Mansfield considerably.

MANSFIELD 0—CANTON 14

A rain-soaked field and the absence of three starting linemen proved to be Mansfield's downfall. Canton's strong running game had a decided advantage as Mansfield's passing game was useless in the rain.

MANSFIELD 22—KING PHILIP 8

Mansfield bounced back against King Philip. Fullback Jim Albertini and halfback Jake Armstrong repeatedly needled for long gains. Tom Cruser's 65 yard touchdown jaunt was Mansfield's longest of the year. Mansfield's line led by Rich Medeiros and Ken Fallon opened gaping holes in the line.

MANSFIELD 24—CASE 14

Mansfield continued on its winning ways with an impressive victory over a strong Case eleven. Mansfield's offensive standout was fullback Jim Albertini who repeatedly crashed through Case's line for long gains. Underclassmen who stood out included "Meek" Jackson and "Lou" Hayner who scored conversions and Art Faria who did a terrific job blocking for the Hornet ball carriers.

MANSFIELD 14—STOUGHTON 18

A strong Stoughton team gave Mansfield its toughest contest of the season. Ken Fallon contributed to the offense with a tackle eligible play. The defensive line, which included John Albertini, Ken Fallon, Bob Bogdanchik, Bill Henry and Rich Medeiros, did a fine job containing Stoughton's strong ground game.

MANSFIELD 10—FOXBORO 16

The final score was not truly indicative of the game as the Green Hornets completely outplayed arch-rival Foxboro. Mansfield's stubborn defensive wall held Foxboro's strong ground game to almost nothing. Senior Harlie Vernon, sidelined with an early season injury, returned to the team and did a fine job kicking off.

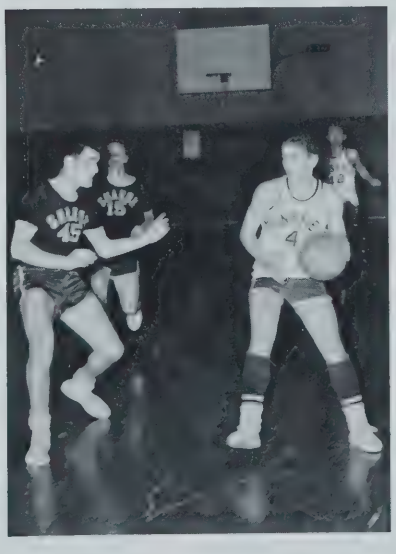
It's twine time.

I'm Jim Walker from P.C.

I wish this was a whopperburger.

I'm the only one on the team who can touch the backboard.



Just because I shoot 48 times a quarter, some people call me a gun.

Kenny's got the ball and Fred's still playing defense.

Make our dreams come true.

History of the Class of 1965

by Judith Brassard, Patricia McNamara and Dorothy Wills

On a beautiful fall day, we, the class of 1965, entered the hallowed halls of Mansfield High School as peagreen freshmen to begin our high school career.

Our first duty as lowly peagreens was to undergo the traditional freshman initiation. Clutching our dolls and teddy bears, we stumbled through the corridors wearing unmatched shoes and giant baby bibs. Upon demand of any mighty senior we were obliged to recite the following poem:

We are the Peagreen Freshmen
Who look upon as idols
All you mighty Seniors
With the many honored titles
We promise always to serve you
Come whatever may
And now we will salute you
With a loud hooray, hooray!

The climax of this hectic week was the Freshman Initiation Dance. The evening was full of exciting events and ended with a big bang when Jimmy Albertini tried to match his strength against the wall.

Under the guidance of our class advisors, Mr. Edward Albertini, Miss Lucille Whisenant, and Mr. Nicholas Pacella, and under the leadership of our newly-elected class officers, President James Albertini, Vice President Ralph Thomas, Secretary Sally Clifford, and Treasurer Linda Guillette, we held our first class meeting to plan the Freshman Farewell to Seniors. As the year came to a close, we all looked forward to a well-earned vacation.

We eagerly returned to M.H.S. in the fall of 1962, no longer the youngest members of the school. We felt wonderful to be back, and we were looking forward to a truly great year. Our new class officers, President Thomas Cruser, Vice President Harland Vernon, Secretary Sally Clifford, and Treasurer Carol King guided us through the activities of our Sophomore year.

Our major social event of the year was the Bermuda Hop. At this dance, we were allowed to ignore the dress code. Both boys and girls alike wore sweatshirts and bermudas, or anything which suited their fancy. This made the evening casual and relaxing and added to the success of the dance.

Going along with tradition at M.H.S., we were measured for our class rings in early spring.

As the year ended, we realized we had completed half of our journey towards graduation but we still had a long way to go before reaching our goal.

Under the leadership of Thomas Cruser, President, Harland Vernon, Vice-president, Dorothy Wills, Secretary, and Carol King, Treasurer, with Miss Joanne Sizemore appointed as a new advisor, we began our Junior year at Mansfield High.

As Juniors, we held various money-making affairs during the year. The first major event was a "Pre-Victory" dance, held the night before our big football game against Holbrook High School. The success of this dance induced us to try our luck again in November when the annual "Sadie Hawkins Dance" was held. Instead of the traditional Li'l Abner characters, "The Flintstones" served as our decorations. Not only were the girls successful in trapping dates for this dance, but, our class itself, was successful in adding a little more weight to the treasury.

During the months of November and December we were allowed to display our talents as amateur salesmen when our candy sale was held. None of us will ever be able to forget that hectic day when carton after carton of candy arrived for us to take home and deliver. For her exceptional ability in selling over one hundred cans, Roberta Jones was awarded free dues by our class.

In the spring, Elaine D'Amico and David Ingram were selected by the faculty to attend Girls' and Boys' State respectively. Thomas Cruser, selected by the Rotary, attended Boys' State also. During this time, we began to feel a tinge of "senioritis" setting in as Loring Studios was chosen as our official class photographer.

No other event, in our Junior year, will be so long remembered as our reception to the Seniors in May. Under the able leadership of our co-chairmen, Susan Hagerty and David Ingram, our gym was transformed into a miniature Egypt with palm trees, golden sphinxes and even a barge on which to seat the crowned King and Queen. With such a romantic and exotic setting, "A Night on the Nile" proved to be one of the most successful proms ever given.

The gaiety of this affair, however, was short-lived as we prepared for final exams in June.

Senior Year 1964-1965

After an all too brief summer, we, as seniors, entered Mansfield High School to begin the final and most eventful year of our high school days.

The first major event on our social calendar was the Freshman Initiation to earn the privilege of being under the guidance of such marvelous and mighty seniors, the pea-green were forced to obey the orders of their superiors. During the day one could see little people wandering about in bibs, bonnets, braids, and bobby socks. At the dance that night, prizes were awarded to Angela Repucci and Ronny Nelson for being the most co-operative freshmen of the day.

Hardly had the welcome for the Freshmen worn off, when we were busily preparing for our second social, the Hobo Dance. It was hard to believe that this crazy assortment of raggedy hobos consisted of students of M.H.S. The best adorned of the evening were the great big hunk, Mary MacKinlay and the shapely little blonde, Ken Fallon.

Amidst all the excitement of our social life, various responsibilities were given which made us aware of the important work still before us. First on the agenda was the selection of the yearbook staff. Mr. Michael Brandenburg was appointed advisor, and Wilma Farinella and David Ingram were chosen co-editors-in-chief. Other editors chosen were: Business Manager, James Repucci; Photography, Elaine D'Amico and Patricia McNamara; Art, Deborah Cheyne; Biographies, Nancy Leonelli and Leslie Reed; Advertising, Lois Coyle and Susan Hagerty; Sports, Gail Nordberg and Thomas Cruser; Underclassmen, Judith Brassard, Carol Collins, Lynn Davis, and Dorothy Wills; and Typing, Susan Maxwell.

On November 20, the Senior Class Play, Off The Track, was presented to an attentive and delighted audience. Under the direction of Mr. Bruce Dexter, the play was a tremendous success. Outstanding performances were given by Frederick Suranofsky, Gerald Wasserman, and Mary Ritz.

The time seemed to fly by as we were all making preparations for the future. On April 9, we were the host for the Sixth Annual Hockomock League Forum. Various high schools of the Hockomock League participated in the panel discussions of the United States in Foreign Affairs. In mid-April we anxiously watched the televised ceremonies of the Student Government Day at the State House, hoping to catch a glimpse of our student representative, David Alperin.

The balmy May evening accented the Hawaiian theme of "Club 65". The delicious food and soft music made this one of our most unforgettable affairs.

All of our thoughts now turned to the Junior Reception to the Seniors. Breaking tradition, the Reception was held at the luxurious Blue Hill Country Club.

Our graduation calendar is set as follows: June 6, Class Picnic; June 7, Class day and Class Banquet; and June 9, Graduation.

We must now part as the Class of 1965, anxious at what the future holds. We will strive and seek and never yield until we reach our individual goals.

The Class Prophecy

by Deborah Cheyne, Lynn Davis, and Nancylee Leonelli

"Step right up, ladies and gentlemen! For only a dollar, let Madame Schonovia gaze into your future. Don't crowd, don't push! There's room for everyone. Yes young ladies, go right in."

A short, haggard woman sat before us, peering into her crystal ball.

"Come closer my dears. What is it you wish to know? Ah, you want some help writing your class prophecy. Well, let us ask the crystal ball.

I see a metropolis; the view is spectacular. On the outskirts an enormous international airport with an adjoining armory is bustling. And off to the left, isn't that M.I.T.? Mansfield Institute of Technology! The heart of the city with its towering skyscrapers is the center of activity. A great business and shopping district spreads the entire length of North Main Street and is engulfed by the beauties of the public gardens.

As I look deeper, I see a plane piloted by BOB CARDIN landing at the airport; a pretty stewardess, NANCY WILLARD bids farewell to CLIFF PHILLIPS, SARAH TORREY, CATHY WILLS, and LOUIE GAMBALE, just arriving home from a world's tour. Outside the terminal, leading fashion designers, ELAINE ROBISON and BARBARA SCARPELLINI enter a cab. Driver DENNIS VASSALOTTI whisks them off to the grand opening of the H. B. Dexter Theater, designed by one of the most promising architects, RICHARD COLLETTE. The brightly lit marquee heralds the premier performance of "On The Track" produced and directed by ALICE E. WARD, renowned for her award winning musical "Gentlemen Prefer Brunettes." Usherette DOREEN SOUZA seats Senator ELAINE D'AMICO and Public Safety Commissioner MIKE DELFINO and their staff, PAT McNAMARA, LINDA GUILLETTE, and LESLIE REED. Backstage leading lady LAURA McDONOUGH and her leading man JESSE EARLS are discussing a last minute lighting problem with stage-manager JOHN CATALANO. A great deal of commotion can be heard outside, as that rabble-rouser WILMA FARINELLA is leading a demonstration against Senator D'Amico's latest actions concerning a bill that would increase the school year to 310 days. Holding placards reading, "REMEMBER SENATOR D'AMICO SPELLED BACKWARDS IS ROTANES OCIMA'D . . . WE WANT A FOUR DAY SCHOOL WEEK!" are COLE BELLAMY and ELLEN WHITE.

Around the corner at the W-H-B-H-B-S-B-A Broadcasting Station, this week's segment of the Late, Late Late, Late Night Time-Early Morning Show is being taped. PAMELA BALCH, leading author of "Me And My Millions" is being interviewed by that popular nighttime entertainer GREG MARTIN. Also on the show are DALE TESSIER, ALEX NAISMITH, and the LAWRENCE sisters—JOYCE and DOTTIE, all of whom are in the millionaire bracket.

From further down the street music can be heard. At the Merry Minuet Dance Studio under the able supervision of instructors JUDY BRASSARD, MABEL CLEMENT, and JOAN COSTA, NORMAN CORLISS painfully attempts to master the minuet with his lovely partner JOYCE WISNIEWSKI. At the other end of the floor are DOTTIE HEM and GERRY HICKEY, learning the latest dance craze "The Fink."

An unusual amount of traffic is present as many are hurrying to the Chruch Street Bowling Lanes where the Women's National Bowling Tournament is in its final stages. The team of DENISE GOOKIN, GINNY CORBETT, and MARYELLEN GRUBICK are bowling against APRIL DEE, VICKI FASULO, and MARY GALANTI. Proprietor JOHN ALBERTINI who has just been talking to Lieutenant ROBERT WADE asks short-order cook DAVE WASHBURN to fix the contestants a little snack.

Entering our shopping district, a number of people seem to be gathered around the window displays at an exclusive men's clothing store. Vacationing owner RICHARD BALDINI has left his establishment in the hands of his able assistant HOHN GOGUEN. John, the originator of the "goguenized" look in men's trousers is frantically trying to help JANE BARRETT and BETTY LAMBOS find a suitable gift for their beaux.

Tantalizing odors tempt passers-by to enter the S. A. RATCHFORD Exotic Food Mart. Standing in the doorway, SARAH impatiently awaits a shipment of French creamed ants and Swiss pickled snake eggs from her foreign buyers. MARILYN HARRIS and CINDY JOHNSON.

Wait, my view is beginning to fade . . . but, for five more dollars I could look deeper. Thank you my dears; now let us see what your other classmates are doing.

At the far end of the street a throng of people are held back by police. JED DEAN and VINNY DIFIORE, sent by the D & D Auto Body Shop, are preparing to tow away a massive, white conestoga wagon. Police lieutenant WALTER SHEAFF transports the owner of the wagon through the business section to the Sixth District Court. Within the courtroom Attorney ROBERT BOGDANCHIK madly defends TOM CRUSER'S rights to drive his conestoga wagon down the Main Street of Mansfield. Next door at the Mansfield Metropolitan Bank, President DAN FULF dictates a letter to his secretary MARY SCIALOIA. Cashier LINDA MUTLOW helps KRIS UPPER deposit her meager teacher's salary.

At the business firm of BIGNELL, BALFOUR, and BARROS, Professor SHIRLEY GROVER is leading her business students on a tour. She seems to be having a difficult time keeping campus cut-ups JAKE ARMSTRONG, RICHARD MEDEIROS, GENE CARLONE, and JIM ALBERTINI in line. They appear to want to linger in the stenographic department where CAROL ANNESE, CINDY BAILEY, DOTTIE WILLS, and MARY MacKINLAY pretend to be busily at work.

Within the McConnell Chemical Company, Regional Manager DALE McCONNELL is having a splinter removed by company nurses JEAN BAXTER and JOYCE BIRMAN. In the specially built industrial lab, technician CHRISTINE AULD is assisted by STEPHEN MANDOLESI. They are perfecting Gl-90, a substitute for hairspray. MARY RITZ, on whom the new chemical has been tested, has just been rushed to the DIANE SANTUCCI Hair Restoration Clinic, located at the DR. HOWARD WEST Medical Center. DONNA SOUZA, KATHY McGEE, SUE BELLAVANCE, CAROLYN BIELAN, and JANICE GARLAND are trying to repair damages to her scalp with radioactive treatments.

Meanwhile in surgery a very delicate hangnail operation is being performed on JACK BELCHER by famous surgeons CHRIS DEWALL and JERRY WASSERMAN and assisted by Chief Surgical Nurse BARBARA MURPHY. Off in the wards a great deal of commotion can be heard as DAVID ALPERIN, President of Mansfield Sanitation Works clamors for attention. SUE MAXWELL, SALLY CLIFFORD, CAROL KING, and BARBARA CLODIUS come running from all directions.

Across from the medical center WAYNE STUART, prominent veterinarian and his assistant JOSEPHINE BRAUNEIS are caring for the sad-eyed mongrel of ROSA DIMONTE.

Passing by the animal hospital is GAIL NORDBERG and her group of kindergarten students, who are on their way for a somersault session in the Public Gardens. At the entrance they meet RONNIE NORFTILL and ED JAMESON who are filling gopher holes. As they journey on they meet LINDA WILSON and MERRY VICKERY capturing the scenic beauties of the Rumford River on canvas.

Meanwhile at Fernandes, new manager DAVID BRINTNALL argues with surveyors DAVID DEVNEW, BILL HENREY, and RONNIE DUPREE who are planning a new superhighway through the market.

Nearby at the HARLAND VERNON Stadium, named in honor of the famed baseball star, FRANCIS LAPLANTE, leads the band in the National Anthem, followed by the Tap Step played by the drum team of CAROL COLLINS and ROBERTA JONES. Anxious fans impatiently await the repair of the P. A. system, as GLEN DETHLEFS and LARRY INMAN perch atop a broadcasting tower frantically trying to mend wires. Now arriving at the stadium is FRED VALLETT, popular news-caster, who retired from baseball at the age of twenty-one.

Only a few miles from the stadium a hectic day comes to a close as students rush to their final classes at M.I.T. PAT ROBINSON, LOIS COYLE, SUE CARBONETTI, and PAULA TARTAGLIA, who are all studying to become nuclear physicists, hurry across the campus so as not to be late for the math class of the eccentric Professor DAVID INGRAM. At the same time, DAVE HAUGER, JIM REPUCCI, BOB SHEEHAN, and KEN FALLON rush to the kitchens of the SHIRLEY MOORE Cooking School. Upon graduation, all plan to work at SUSAN HAGERTY'S Pizza Palace, the only place in town that sells original Irish pizza.

And now for your girls; I see that you too will have . . .

"Hey Debby, is that the cops?"

"Yeah, it must be a raid! Let's get out of here."

In the hustle to leave there is a sudden crash as the crystal ball slips to the floor. Farewell Mansfield Metropolis.

The Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1965

We the Class of 1965 being of sound mind and body wish, at this time, to bestow upon our friends, foes, fellow students and faculty this massive collection of trash, trinkets and trivia, accumulated over these last four glorious years of our high school career:

To Mr. Murphy we leave a blank check to help finance another new school.

To Mr. Qualters the senior class leaves to find out what it's like to think for themselves.

To Mr. Blazo we leave a free Beatle haircut, a joke book and a bag full of party gags.

To the Junior Class we leave a jumbo size package of anti-senioritis pills.

To the Sophomore Class we leave a Book entitled How to Achieve Scholastic Excellence in One Easy Lesson.

To the Freshman Class we leave three more fun-filled joyous years of school.

The members of the Class of 1965 leave the following articles:

Class Song

This is the moment
We've waited for School days soon will be ended
Come tomorrow
(Introduction Music from "Hootenanny Tonight")

All but the memories
That's yours forever
We'll always cherish those
Thousand fun evening days

Remember me all the days
We've had together
Forward we march on
To our separate ways

Now I leave behind me
Keys to the future
A lifetime to live in
No one's world

Now all my dreams come true
And all my hopes fulfill
To see the future's bright
Make our dreams come true
(Music from "Theme from the Alamo")
